Students to Sing on Sunday at St. John's

On Sunday St. John's students will sing for the 10:00 a.m. worship service. Right after the service they are asked to join the choir to practice a special number they will be singing with the choir on October 8 for a special service of thanksgiving for the 50 years our congregation has been privileged to worship here on Brockway. The service will include special music, instruments, and a guest pastor, Pastor David Pries, of Eternal Love Evangelical Lutheran Church, Appleton WI. Pastor Pries is a son of our congregation and the son of our members, Chuck and Kay Pries.

PTO Meeting Monday

This will be an important meeting to discuss what events the PTO will have this year. Our students have been invited to sing at the special Reformation service at the Dow Event Center. We will have some discussion about that at the meeting. Please attend. It's your school.

PTO Thanks You for Your Support

The annual fall mum sale was once again a big success. Thank you to all who helped with this cause.

Students Invited to Sing at Dow Events Center

There will be a children's choir for the MI district Reformation 500 service. The service is taking place at the Dow Events Center - Heritage Theater on Sunday, November 5th at 4 p.m. The children's choir is open to all students in grades 3-8. Schools will need to find out a count of how many students plan to sing and then order the music. Music must be learned prior to the rehearsal, but they do not need to be memorized. There will be one rehearsal on the day of the service, November 5th. Once we know the number of students from St. John's, arrangements will be made to make the music available.
