What's Up Zak? to play at St. John's

May 31 at 7:00 p.m. won't be just another ordinary day at St. John's when our grade school students bring you the musical, What's Up Zak? It's a not so very ordinary day when Jesus meets Zacchaeus, a tax collector, and invites himself to Zak's house for dinner. The musical helps us remember that every day is a special gift. We can share the love of Jesus when we open up our hearts to others. It's time for us to say, "This might be a not so very ordinary day!"
